IN AND FOR RIDGEWAY COUNTY

WILFORDSHULMAN,
Petitioner-Plaintiff,

v.

JAMESGARDAI, in his official and quasi-official capacities as Sergeant in the Ridgeway National Guard,
Respondent-Defendant.

No. RSC-CV-3172

THIS SUMMONS IS DIRECTED TO TECHIEY, STICKZA AND JAMESGARDAI

A civil action has been brought forth against you. The Plaintiff(s) named above has started a lawsuit against you. A copy of the Plaintiff's Complaint filed against you is provided in the service of this summons and the original complaint has been filed in the Superior Court of the State of Ridgeway. You must act promptly to protect your rights.

Within five (5) days after service of this summons on you (not counting the day you received it) — or seven (7) days if you are the State of Ridgeway, the County of Ridgeway, a municipality, or an agency thereof as described in Rid. R. Civ. P. 4 (d)(2) — you must appear before the court communications program and file a motion or answer to the complaint before the aforementioned. If you need time to respond, you may request an extension of time in writing from the Court.

An answer is a way in which you may respond to the attached Complaint. Your answer must state whether you agree or disagree with the fact(s) alleged in each paragraph of the Complaint. Some defenses, called affirmative defenses, must be stated in your answer or you may lose your right to use them in court. If you have any claims against the Plaintiff (referred to as counterclaims) that are based on the same facts described in the Complaint, then you must include those claims in your answer. Otherwise, you may lose your right to sue the Plaintiff about anything related to the lawsuit.

You may also respond to the Complaint by filing a “Motion to Dismiss”, if you believe that the complaint is legally invalid or legally insufficient. A Motion to Dismiss must be based on one of the legal deficiencies or reasons listed under Rid R. Civ. P. 12.

You may wish to get legal assistance from an attorney. If you are unable to obtain legal assistance, you may request referral to an attorney by the Ridgeway State Bar and appointment of counsel by the court.

If you fail to respond, judgment by default will be entered against you for the relief demanded in the complaint.
